

Koyasan and Kumano Kodo

AUTUMN 2018 TOUR | ITINERARY

- DAY 1 Thursday 1 November. We meet at our hotel in Osaka. For those who arrive in the afternoon, we visit Osaka castle and its surrounding gardens (optional - meet in the foyer at 2.30pm). At 5.45pm we meet in the hotel foyer as a group to discuss the next day's arrangements over a drink (own cost) at a nearby bar. We then take a subway to the lively and bustling Dotonbori district for dinner (at own cost and optional).
- DAY 2 Friday 2 November. Today we travel by train and cable car to UNESCO listed Koyasan, birthplace of Shingon Buddhism in Japan. On arrival we walk a section of the path taken by female pilgrims, who until early last century were forbidden to enter the Koyasan temple precinct. We continue to explore this historic area after lunch (own cost). Our accommodation tonight is a Buddhist temple, where there will be an opportunity to join in a guided meditation before dinner. After a traditional vegetarian temple meal, shojin-ryori, we take an atmospheric night walk through stone lanterns to Okunoin cemetery where Kobo Daishi, the founder of the Shingon sect of Buddhism, rests. Breakfast and dinner included.
- DAY 3 Saturday 3 November. This morning we join in prayers and experience the Goma fire ritual at the temple (optional) before breakfast. We then travel by charter bus to Takijiri-oji, with a stop at a farmhouse café for a lunch of organic home grown produce.
- On arrival at Takijiri-oji, we visit the information centre and then begin our pilgrimage along the Kumano Kodo. Our walk from Takijiri-oji to Takahara is only about 4 kilometres but it begins with a steep and perhaps challenging climb. The destination is worth the effort. Tonight we stay at a wonderful lodge, well known for its hospitality, organic food and stunning views. Breakfast, lunch and dinner included.
- DAY 4 Sunday 4 November. Today our 14 kilometre walk takes us from Takahara to Tsugizakura-oji. Again our walk begins with a steep climb and before descending for lunch at a roadside café (own cost), we climb 400 metres from Takahara. In the afternoon we pass through the small hamlet of Chikatsuyu, site of one of the oldest oji shrines along the trail. A small footbath here fed by a local hot spring is a pleasant place to soak our pilgrim feet. After admiring the 800 year old giant cedar trees at Tsugizakura-oji, we walk 20 minutes off the main trail to our accommodation for this evening. Breakfast and dinner included.
- DAY 5 Monday 5 November. Today requires an early start ahead of a big day of walking. We return to the trail and walk from Tsugizakura-oji to Hongu (about 22 kilometres). Over the morning we hike up and over three high passes before we stop for a well-earned rest and enjoy our obento lunch. In the afternoon the scenery changes from cedar forests to orange groves and tea plantations as we gently descend into Hongu. Here we explore Kumano Hongu Taisha, one of the three Grand Shrines that make up the Kumano Sanzan. We then take a bus to the riverside village of Kawayu where we spend the night. If time and weather permit, we experience the hot thermal springs of the river before dinner. Breakfast, lunch and dinner included.

AUTUMN 2018 TOUR | ITINERARY

- DAY 6 Tuesday 6 November. We take a rest from walking today. In the morning there is an optional visit to the delightful hot spring town of Yunomine, home to the historic Tsuyobu; the only hot spring bath that is registered as UNESCO World Heritage. The rest of the day is free to explore the Hongu area further or to simply relax – perhaps soak in the hot thermal springs. Our ryokan tonight is again at Kawayu Onsen. Breakfast and dinner included.
- DAY 7 Wednesday 7 November. This morning we walk along the river to Ukegawa where we begin our walk along the Kogumotori route to Koguchi (about 15 kilometres in total). Along the way, we pass one of the most spectacular views of the entire Kumano Kodo at Hyakkengura. After enjoying our picnic obento lunches, we begin our descent down into the pretty valley where the small hamlet of Koguchi is located. Our accommodation tonight is rather unique; we stay in a former school converted into a popular lodge. Breakfast, lunch and dinner included.
- DAY 8 Thursday 8 November. After an early breakfast, we set off on the Ogomotori-goe route to Nachi Taisha, the final shrine of our Kumano Sanzen pilgrimage. This is our last and most arduous day of walking (about 15 kilometres) and the seemingly never ending 800 metre climb on the aptly named Dogiri-zaka (“body breaking slope”) is both physically and mentally challenging. A further climb after a picnic lunch takes us to the Funami-toge pass, with its panoramic views to the Pacific Ocean. From here the final descent to Nachi Taisha begins. This spectacular site is set against the backdrop of Japan’s largest waterfall. We take some time on arrival to rest before exploring this sacred site. Leaving Nachi Taisha, we travel by public bus a short distance to the coastal town of Kii-Katsuura. Our accommodation this evening is in this onsen resort village where we have the opportunity to relax in the wonderful indoor and outdoor onsen baths, before our final dinner together. Breakfast, lunch and dinner included.
- DAY 9 Friday 9 November. For our last day, we begin with an optional early morning visit to the local tuna markets before breakfast. Our charter bus first takes us to nearby Shingu to see the last of the three Grand Shines, Hayatama Taisha. We then travel back through the Kii mountain range to our final destination of Tanabe, with a stop for lunch on the way. Our estimated time of arrival at Tanabe is 3pm and from here there are good train connections to Kansai International Airport, Kyoto, Osaka or on to Tokyo. We are happy to assist with the purchase of train tickets for onward journeys. Breakfast and lunch included.
